EVA BELTRAN

Eva Beltran is a Spanish born Australian artist based in Sydney. She has an expressionist approach to subjects, aiming to depict an emotional experience more than a physical reality.

Her work talks about landscapes, emotions and memories through abstract figurations where intricate perspective is conveyed through linework variations and layers of mixed media. Paintings are expressive and sculptures rhythmic. Eva's visual language recalls Cubist, Symbolist, and Surrealist traditions.

"My exhibition Immersion gives voice to works inspired by the landscape; the rhythm and the emotional space that Australia has provided me. By living far from the place I was born, I was able to start a new dialogue with myself and reconnect to who I really am, an artist. For that, I am truly grateful."
